

Eagle Creek Cutoff Trail #504

Recreation Opportunity Guide

Distance..... 2.2 miles (one way)

Elevation..... 2400-4000 feet

Snow Free ..... July to October

Trail Highlights: This trail lies within the Salmon-Huckleberry Wilderness Area. It is a great place to find solitude as it is one of the least traveled trails in the area. It mainly functions as a connection between Old Baldy Trail #502 and Eagle Creek Trail #501.

Trail Description: The north end of this trail starts at a ford at the east end of Eagle Creek Trail then climbs steadily at a moderate grade and switchbacks numerous times. The south end is the junction with Old Baldy Trail #502. The trail has no good campsite options and has no water except for a small riparian area near the top.

Regulations & Leave No Trace Information:

- Group size is limited to 12. Stock are counted in the group size. For example, 3 people riding their own horse plus a spare horse in the group for packing would make a group of 7.

Leave No Trace

- Plan Ahead and Prepare: Prepare for extreme weather, hazards and emergencies.
- Travel and Camp on Durable Surfaces: Use established trails and campsites.
- Dispose of Waste Properly: Pack out all trash, leftover food and litter.
- Leave What You Find: Avoid introducing or transporting non-native species.
- Minimize Campfire Impacts: Use established fire rings & keep fires small.
- Respect Wildlife: Control pets at all times.
- Be Considerate of Other Visitors: Avoid loud voices and noises.
